entre Limited Annual Benort 2006

Chairman's Review

by Bruce Brown

ON behalf of our 8300 people worldwide, welcome to Flight Centre Limited's annual report for 2005/06.

The 12 months to June 30, 2006 was a challenging but significant period for our company as it continued its evolution from an Australian-centred leisure travel specialist into a diverse international network of leisure, corporate, wholesale and online sales channels.

In a constantly changing industry, this network delivered:

- Record sales, with annual revenue exceeding $1billion for the first time and total transaction value approaching $8billion
- Moderate profit growth for the year, a reasonable achievement after poor first and second quarters
- Increased earnings per share, with EPS increasing 4% to 84.6cents
- Steady returns to shareholders, with total dividends up 3% to 52 cents per share.

Credit must of course go to our people, who again performed magnificently.

Operational highlights

While the Australian leisure operation was again the company's largest profit generator and will continue as a key part of our business, other segments have started to narrow the gap.

Growth in corporate travel business through the FCm Travel Solutions network was significant during 2005/06 and was undoubtedly a highlight of the year.

Other highlights included:

- South Africa, where leisure and corporate profits both increased significantly, albeit from a relatively small base
- North America, with increased corporate travel profit in both Canada and the USA, Canada's leisure business returning to profit in the second half after three years of losses and slightly reduced USA leisure losses

- India, where returns from the company's 2005 acquisition exceeded expectations
- The reduction of some global costs that were significant in the previous two years

Strategically, the company made reasonable progress towards achieving the performance goals it outlined at the start of 2005/06. These goals related to expansion, online content and capabilities, margin maintenance and cost improvements.

Our challenge is to build on these solid foundations in 2006/07.

We continue to refine our business model to accommodate industry changes, both in Australia and overseas, and, as we continue our evolution, we will expand and develop our business in markets and sectors that we believe are important for our future and where we believe we can deliver value to our shareholders.

Thank you for your ongoing support of our company.

At the start of 2005/06, the company outlined a number of performance goals for the year. Its progress in achieving these goals is outlined below.

Its progress in achieving these goals is outlined below.
Stated Goal for 2005/06	Outcomes

	Reduced head office overheadsRewardPass program disbanded

2006/07 Outlook

by Graham Turner

FLIGHT Centre Limited's fundamentals remain sound as the company continues to finetune its business models to accommodate significant industry changes such as airfare margins and supplier disintermediation facilitated by the internet.

Sales continue to grow, we maintain a very strong balance sheet and the company continues to develop and enhance a comprehensive sales network that already includes:

- Flight Centre, one of Australia's most valuable and successful retail brands
- FCm Travel Solutions, one of the world's fastest-growing corporate networks
- A stable of increasingly popular global travel websites such as flightcentre.com, fcmtravel.com and quickbeds.com plus Australian sites escapetravel.com.au, flightcentrehotels.com.au and studentflights.com.au

Building from these proven and sound foundations, Flight Centre Limited will again target double-digit TTV growth globally in 2006/07.

With its focus on cost reduction and overall business improvement, the company's goal is to bring profit growth closer into line with this TTV growth.

As outlined in our recent full year result announcement, our retail shop network will remain an important contributor to both our brand and our profit, but our growing diversity - of both brand and geography - is clearly one of our future strengths.

We are now more than just an Australian-based leisure travel specialist, as evidenced by our corporate travel growth and success overseas. In just two years, we have expanded FCm's network to more than 50 countries (nine owned, 41 licensees) and secured both equity and strong local partnerships in the world's emerging new business economy known as BRIC - Brazil, Russia, India and China.

Given its strong growth, we anticipate FCm Travel Solutions will account for at least half of the company's overall profit within five years.

Flight Centre Limited has identified six key issues for the year. Strategies that are in place to address these issues and drive future growth are outlined below.

Issue	Key Strategies
Growth	Continued expansion in leisure, wholesale (Infinity Holidays) and corporate, mainly outside Australia Any acquisitions in both leisure and corporate likely to be small, profitable businesses with niche product or services
Gross Margins	Ongoing push for surcharges to be included in margin slowly gaining momentum - some carriers already fuel inclusive, others expected to follow suit
	Promotion of airline and land-based products that offer reasonable margin
Online	Further enhancements required to improve informational and transactional capabilities to leisure and corporate websites and technology platform
People	Focus on attracting and retaining the right people
	Career development programs in place, in-house university program and flexible workplace arrangements introduced - job-share, part-time and work-from-home opportunities
Costs	Ongoing cost reduction - cost increases inevitable in frontline businesses, so further head office overhead reductions necessary
Customer Experience	Specific and targeted customer initiatives underway, focusing on service, improving response times and in-store experience

Operational Overview

Flight Centre Technology Pty Ltd

Technology is a core component of Flight Centre Limited's businesses throughout the world. Accessing the right information, sharing information and increasing work productivity are essential in reaching the company's growth and profit objectives.

Flight Centre Limited's information technology company, Flight Centre Technology Pty Ltd, aims to provide cost effective and efficient services to its customers and to help the company achieve its overall aims.

During the past year, priorities included:

- Developing closer alignment between IT and the broader Flight Centre Limited business and
- Shifting IT's focus from execution to strategy and design

As a result, all IT resources now focus on predetermined "business priorities" to ensure priority projects are completed and implemented as efficiently as possible.

The focus on strategy and design means the company's architect team and technical subject matter experts select the most appropriate IT solutions, either off-the-shelf or developed in-house. This allows IT to deliver quicker and cheaper IT solutions through multiple internal and external channels of execution.

The implementation of ITIL industry best practice into the company's service and support areas has also created a more effective overall IT operation.

Project Services

Flight Centre Limited's Project Services team is closely aligned to the IT business and is charged with overseeing and implementing business improvement initiatives.

This dedicated team plays a key role in project delivery and ensures improvement initiatives systematically progress through each phase, from initially gathering business requirements to the final implementation stage.

By developing an improved project methodology, Project Services has helped ensure that business analysts and IT architects have closer working relationships with developers to ensure projects run to plan, to budget and give a return on investment.

Other benefits include:

- Clearer visibility on all project activities throughout the company
- Better allocation of resources for project and maintenance activities
- Improved communication of change and likely impacts on the company's shop network
- A more proactive working relationship with the broader business and a clearer understanding of the business's strategies for projects in the future.

Finance and Procurement

Flight Centre Limited continues to develop and improve its finance area. The primary aim is to employ, retain and develop high calibre professionals to deliver quality information and advice to front line staff to improve earnings and minimise costs.

During 05/06, the company's finance teams continued to improve productivity via process and system improvements.

A streamlined payroll system was introduced in the form of a self service kiosk, an innovation that has reduced administrative requirements at store, area and nation level.

A tender was completed for transactional banking requirement in Australia and this new arrangement should ultimately deliver cost savings and better support for the company's expanding network.

The Australian-based Treasury team again generated solid returns in interest and investment income, while adhering to investment guidelines set by Flight Centre Limited's Board.

During 2005/06, the average yield on funds under management increased from 7.35% to 7.60%.

Flight Centre Limited improved its weighted average credit quality from an "A" to an "AA-/ A+" credit rating on its investment portfolio.

In the company's Procurement area, the vision is to deliver sustained competitive advantage by leveraging the business's aggregated spend and intelligence.

During 2005/06, a new procurement model was fully deployed in Australia and rolled out in South Africa, the United Kingdom and North America. The model will be launched in New Zealand this year.

In Australia, $100m of spend is now under procurement management including key categories of telecommunications, print, publications, media, property, logistics and recruitment.

Reciprocation of business was another important aspect of the model and $75million in supplier corporate travel spend was referred to FCm Travel Solutions for conversion during the year.

PeopleWorks

The PeopleWorks businesses recruit and present prospective consultants and other professionals to the company's managers and, later, train and develop staff.

Businesses that operate in this important area include:

- Recruitment
- The Learning Centre
- The Leadership Centre
- Healthwise
- Moneywise
- The William James School of Business

During 2005/06, PeopleWorks conducted comprehensive research to identify the aspects of Flight Centre Limited life that were most important to staff. Following this research, the Our People program was launched to give the company's "people" initiatives greater visibility.

This program focuses on five key areas - career support, health and lifestyle balance, personal finance, reward and recognition and travel benefits - and ensures that staff members are aware of the facilities, support and opportunities available to them as they further their Flight Centre Limited careers.

In addition to building on this program, a key PeopleWorks focus for the year ahead is to attract and retain the right people. Through the Learning and Leadership centres, comprehensive career development programs are in place, while the William James School of Business allows the company's people to gain tertiary qualifications via an innovative in-house program.

The William James School of Business's first graduates obtained their qualifications in November 2005 and its students now include members of Flight Centre Limited's executive team, who are undertaking a senior leadership development program. Area leaders are also undertaking a leader development program to fast-track their progression.

Within Recruitment, flexible workplace arrangements have also been introduced, including job-share, part-time and work-from-home opportunities.

Moneywise and Healthwise, the company's in-house financial planning and health services, continue to prove popular. Healthwise now operates globally and provides a one-stop shop for people's health and wellness needs, thereby reducing the costly impact of illness and injury, in addition to organising major events such as the Flight Centre Cycle Epic, which is now Australasia's largest point-to-point mountain bike race.

Marketing

Flight Centre Limited's brands are core assets and are consistently presented to customers in all advertising and marketing initiatives to improve brand recognition and awareness. The company's marketing activities are geared towards developing the range of leisure and corporate brands to cater for specific niches in the ever-changing travel market. By carefully tailoring its marketing campaigns, the company ensures its leisure and corporate customers can organise their travel via the sales channel that best suits their needs.

In the leisure sector, marketing teams focused on increasing enquiry and decreasing the cost of enquiry per consultant to deliver a cost effective service to the shops.

Teams also helped develop new shop lay-outs, infrastructure and merchandising to improve the customer experience and to engage customers at the point of sale. Other achievements included:

In corporate, expanding FCm Travel Solutions' customer base and cost effectively generating sales leads for the network's business development managers were priorities during 2005/06.

The corporate marketing team was also instrumental in:

- · Revitilising the Stage and Screen brand
- Merging the Kistend and Campus Travel businesses to form the new KistendCampus brand
- Introducing a quarterly, branded Trans Tasman hard cover magazine and monthly e-zine for customers
- Launching concentrated direct marketing campaigns which delivered outstanding results

Company vision, purpose and philosophies

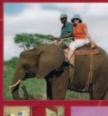

For our company to survive, grow and prosper for the next 100 years and beyond, we must clearly define and live by our vision, purpose and philosophies. We must protect and further develop our company culture and philosophies. Our culture must be robust and independent, with the ability to outlive our current and future leaders.

Our Vision

To be the world's most exciting travel company, delivering an amazing experience to our people, customers and partners.*

Our Purpose

'To open up the world for those who want to see.'

For our people this means our purpose is to open up their world by helping them develop professionally and personally.

For our customers this means opening up their world through the exciting medium of well-organised, targeted and great value travel experiences.

For our shareholders it is giving them a magnificent return on their investment.

Our Philosophies

1. OUR PEOPLE

Our company is our people. We care for our colleagues' health and wellbeing, their personal and professional development and their financial security. We believe that work should be challenging and fun for everyone and through work we contribute to our community.

2. OUR CUSTOMER

We recognise that our customers always have a choice. Therefore a superior customer service experience, provided with honesty, integrity and a great attitude, is key to our company's success, as is the travel experience we provide.

3. PROFIT

A fair margin resulting in a business profit is the key measure of whether we are providing our customers with a product and service they value.

4. OWNERSHIP

We believe each individual in our company should have the opportunity to share in the company's success through outcome-based incentives, profit share, BOS (franchises) and Employee Share Schemes. It is important that business leaders and business team members see the business they run as their business.

5. INCENTIVES

Incentives are based on measurable and reliable outcome-based KPIs. We believe that 'what gets rewarded, gets done'. If the right outcomes are rewarded, our company and our people will prosper.

6. BRIGHTNESS OF FUTURE

We believe our people have the right to belong to a Team (family), a Village, an Area (tribe) and Nation (hierarchy) that will provide them with an exciting future and a supportive working community. They also have the right to see a clear pathway to achieving their career goals. Promotion and transfers from within will always be our first choice.

7. OUR STANDARD SYSTEMS - ONE BEST WAY

In our business there is always 'one best way' to operate. These are standard systems employed universally until a better way is shown. This improved way becomes the 'one best way system'. We value common sense over conventional wisdom.

8. FAMILY, VILLAGE, TRIBE

Our structure is simple, lean, flat and transparent, with accessible leaders.

There is a maximum of 4 and sometimes 5 layers. The village is an unfunded, self-help support group that forms an integral part of our structure.

- Teams (the family) (minimum 3, maximum 7 members)
 Villages (minimum 3, maximum 7 teams)
- 2. Areas (tribe) (minimum 10, maximum 20 teams)
- 3. Nations (minimum 8, maximum 15 areas)
- 4. Regions/States/Countries (minimum 4, maximum 8 nations)

10. EGALITARIANISM AND UNITY

In our company, we believe that each individual should have equal privileges and rights. In Leisure and Corporate, in Australia and overseas, and in organically grown and acquired businesses, there should be no 'them and us'.

Governance

1. Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The Board acknowledges that its primary role is to create and safeguard shareholder value.

The Board's functions include:

- Charting the group's direction, strategies and financial objectives
- Overseeing and monitoring organisational performance

The Board has a complementary mix of skills that provide the desired depth and experience. Currently, there are three non-executive directors (including the chairman) and one executive director.

The managing director is a member of the Board but does not hold the position of chairman. The Board meets monthly and on an ad hoc basis to consider time critical matters.

Directors may seek legal advice, at the company's expense, on any matter relating to the group subject to prior notification to the chairman.

Board Composition

The directors' names and biographical details are provided in the annual report.

Nominations Committee

Due to the small size of the Flight Centre Limited Board, the full Board is considered a more effective and appropriate mechanism to deliberate selection, appointment and performance matters.

Independence and Materiality

An independent director is a director who is independent of management and free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with the exercise of the director's unfettered and independent judgment.

Materiality is assessed on a case-bycase basis from the perspective of both the company and the director concerned.

The Board believes the current nonexecutive directors qualify as independent.

3. Promote Ethical & Responsible Decision Making

Flight Centre actively promotes a set of values designed to assist all employees in their dealings with each other, competitors, customers and the community. Details of the directors' qualifications and attendance are set out in the annual report.

Remuneration report

A. Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration (audited)

The objective of the consolidated entity's executive reward framework is to ensure reward for performance is competitive and appropriate for the results delivered. Underpinning this framework is the core philosophy of "ownership by our people", which ensures opportunities for employees to invest in their own success. The framework aligns executive reward with achievement of strategic objectives and the creation of value for shareholders. The Board ensures that executive reward satisfies the following key criteria for good reward governance practices:

- · competitiveness and reasonableness
- · acceptability to shareholders
- performance linkage / alignment of executive compensation
- transparency

The company has structured an executive remuneration framework that is market competitive and complementary to the organisation's reward strategy.

The framework provides a mix of fixed and variable pay and a blend of short and long-term incentives. As executives gain seniority with the group, the balance of this mix shifts to a higher proportion of "at risk" rewards.

Non-executive directors

Fees and payments to non-executive directors reflect the demands which are made on, and the responsibilities of, the directors. Non-executive directors' fees and payments are reviewed annually by the Board. The chairman is not present at any discussions relating to determination of his own remuneration. Directors have elected not to participate in the Flight Centre Limited Employee Option Plan. Directors are not eligible to participate in the Flight Centre Limited Employee Share Plan.

Directors' fees

Non-executive directors' fees are determined within an aggregate annual directors' fee pool limit, which is periodically recommended for approval by shareholders. The maximum currently stands at $400,000 per annum as approved by shareholders on 31 October 2003.

Executive pay

The executive pay and reward framework has four components:

- · base pay and benefits
- short-term performance incentives
- long-term incentives through participation in the Business Ownership Scheme (BOS) program, Flight Centre Limited Employee
 Option Plan and Employee Share Plan, and
- other remuneration such as superannuation contributions.

The combination of these comprises the executive's total remuneration.

Base pay

Executives are offered a guaranteed base pay element by the remuneration committee. In keeping with Flight Centre's philosophy of "what gets rewarded gets done", an executive's pay is heavily weighted towards short-term incentives.

B = Number of meetings held during the time the director held office or was a member of the committee during the year

^{* =} Not a member of the relevant committee

Superannuation contributions

Executives receive the benefit of superannuation contributions paid to a defined contribution superannuation fund sponsored by Flight Centre Limited. Payments are made in accordance with relevant government legislation.

Short-term incentives

Executives become entitled to short-term incentives if the company achieves a predetermined profit target or outcome-based key performance indicators ('KPIs') or they achieve a prescribed profit within their divisions. Annual profit targets are set by the remuneration committee and incentives are payable monthly. Using a profit target ensures a variable award is only available when value has been created for shareholders and when returns are consistent with the business plan.

Each executive's short-term incentive target is reviewed frequently during each year to ensure that targets are aligned to group and company strategic goals and that appropriate compensation is achieved.

BOS interest

An integral part of an executive's position is the opportunity to participate in the Business Ownership Scheme ('BOS') unsecured note program.

The BOS program enables invited staff to invest directly in the operations of their division. Under this program, an executive makes a cash investment to participate in the growth in profits of his or her business area as the receipt of an interest return on investment. The executive is exposed to the risks of his or her business, as returns are not guaranteed by Flight Centre Limited or any of its group companies.

Share-based compensation

Share-based compensation is made available through the Flight Centre Limited Employee Option Plan, Senior Executive Option Plan and Employee Share Plan.

At the discretion of the Board, certain executives have been granted share options under the rules of the Flight Centre Limited Senior Executive Option Plan as established in March 2006. Options are not granted unless profit performance conditions are met. The maximum options available to each executive is limited to 20,000 for the 2006 and 2007 year.

Directors have not received any options during the year.

Executives are eligible to participate in the Flight Centre Limited Employee Share Plan in line with conditions for all staff generally. The company believes it is important for its people to see the business they run as their business and, accordingly, offers the plan to provide staff with the opportunity to take ownership by investing in Flight Centre Limited shares. Details of the plan are contained in note 42 of the full financial report.

Directors are not eligible to participate in the Employee Share Plan.

C. Service agreements (audited)

There are no fixed term service agreements with any director or key management personnel of the consolidated entity. Directors and key management personnel may terminate employment with the company in accordance with statutory notice periods. Termination benefits may become payable in accordance with any contractual arrangements.

D. Share-based compensation (audited) - Options

Options are granted under the Flight Centre Limited Employee Option Plan (established in October 1997 and amended 31 October 2002) and the Senior Executive Option Plan (March 2006). Options are granted under the plan for no consideration. Options are exercisable over fully paid unissued ordinary shares of the company.

Challenging performance hurdles are set annually on grant date and options vest upon achieving those hurdles. The performance hurdles are generally two fold:

- · the total group profit target to be met; and
- · the respective business unit must either meet or improve upon a predetermined profit or budget target.

The plan rules provide that the total number of options which can be on issue at any one time is limited such that the number of shares resulting from exercising of all unexercised options does not exceed 5% of the company's then issued capital.

The terms and conditions of each grant of options affecting remuneration in the previous, this or future reporting periods are as follows:

Grant date	Expiry date	Exercise price	Value per option at grant date	Date exercisable
30 March 2006	30 March 2011	$10.66	$1.96	50% on release of 2006 audited financial statements of the group to the market and 50% on release of 2007 audited financial statements of the group to the market and are granted at no consideration.

Options granted under the plan carry no dividend or voting rights.

When exercisable, each option is convertible into one ordinary share.

The exercise price of options is based on the weighted average price at which the company's shares are traded on the Australian Stock Exchange during the five trading days immediately before the options were granted.

Details of options over ordinary shares in the company provided as remuneration to each director of Flight Centre Limited and each of the key management personnel of the Flight Centre Limited Group are set out below. When exercisable, each option is convertible into one ordinary share of Flight Centre Limited. Further information on the options is set out in note 42 of the full financial report.

The assessed fair value at grant date of options granted to the individuals is allocated equally over the period from grant date to vesting date, and the amount is included in the remuneration tables above. Fair values at grant date are independently determined using a Black Scholes option pricing model that takes into account the exercise price, the term of the option, the impact of dilution, the share price at grant date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yield and the risk-free interest rate for the term of the option.

The model inputs for options granted during the year ended 30 June 2006 included:

- (a) options are granted for no consideration; each tranche vests and is exercisable on 30 September 2006 and 30 September 2007 respectively.
- (b) exercise price: $10.66
- (c) grant date: 30 March 2006
- (d) expiry date: 30 March 2011
- (e) share price at grant date: $11.03
- (f) expected price volatility of the company's shares: 27.91%
- (g) expected dividend yield: 5.11%
- (h) risk free interest rate: 5.25%

Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration: relationship between remuneration and company performance

The overall level of executive reward takes into account the performance of the consolidated entity over a number of years, with greater emphasis given to the current and prior year.

Details of remuneration: incentives and options

For each incentive and grant of options included in Section B above, percentage of available incentive and grant that was paid, or vested, in the financial year, and the percentage that was forfeited because the person did not meet the service and performance criteria set out in the table below. No part of the incentive is payable in future years. The options vest over two years, provided the vesting conditions are met. No options will vest if the conditions are not satisfied, hence the minimum value of the option yet to vest is nil.

Notes to and Forming Part of the Financial Statements

This concise financial report relates to the consolidated entity consisting of Flight Centre Limited and the entities it controlled at the end of, or during, the year ended 30 June 2006. The accounting policies adopted have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated in note 1 below.

The company is of a kind referred to in Class Order 98/100, issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, relating to the "rounding off" of amounts in financial reports. Amounts in the concise financial report have been rounded off in accordance with that Class Order to the nearest thousand dollars.

1. Explanation of transition to Australian equivalents to IFRS

The full financial report on which this concise financial report is based is the first annual Flight Centre Limited financial report to be prepared in accordance with Australian equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AIFRS). AASB 1 First time Adoption of Australian Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards has been applied in preparing the full financial report.

Financial statements of Flight Centre Limited until 30 June 2005 had been prepared in accordance with previous Australian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (AGAAP). AGAAP differs in certain respects from AIFRS. When preparing Flight Centre Limited's 2006 financial statements, management has amended certain accounting, valuation and consolidation methods applied in the AGAAP financial statements to comply with AIFRS. With the exception of financial instruments, the comparative figures in respect of 2005 were restated to reflect these adjustments. The group has taken the exemption available under AASB 1 to only apply AASB 132 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement from 1 July 2005.

Reconciliations and descriptions of the effect of transition from previous AGAAP to AIFRS on the group's equity and its net income are given in note 43 of the full financial report. A summary of this information is provided below.

(1) Reconciliation of equity reported under previous Australian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (AGAAP) to equity under Australian equivalents to IFRSs (AIFRS)

	Co	nsolidated
	1 July 2004 $'000	30 June 2005 $'000
Total equity (AGAAP)	424,235	387,409
Derecognition of revalued software licences	(16,181)	(14,138)
Adjustment to fair value of business combination	-	(445)
Provision for decommissioning costs	(1,957)	(2,163)
Impairment of assets under AASB 136	(3,577)	(5,238)
Amortisation of goodwill	-	9,888
Derecognition of research costs	(5,398)	(5,700)
Correction of reporting under AGAAP	(4,070)	(4,692)
Tax effect of adjustments	8,250	8,563
Rent Free Period	(835)	(835)
Total equity (AIFRS)	400,467	372,649

The above reconciliation includes the effect of the correction of an error made under previous AGAAP. This is not an effect of transition to AIFRS. For further information refer to note 43 in the full financial report.

(3) Reconciliation of cash flow statement for the year ended 30 June 2005

The adoption of AIFRS has not resulted in any material adjustments to the cash flow statement.

2. Revision of estimates in preparation of financial report

The company's accounting policy for volume-based incentive payments is to recognise revenue at the time of ticketing. In previous reporting periods, a component of this revenue could not be reliably estimated at the time of ticketing and was, therefore, not recognised until the subsequent accounting period when the revenue could be determined with certainty.

During the year, the company has implemented a new reporting tool which enables a reliable estimate of that component of the volume-based incentive to be made at the time of ticketing. This has resulted in a one-off increase to both revenue and pre tax profit of $4,750,000 ($3,325,000 after tax) in the current period. There is no material impact of this change in future reporting periods.

3. Segment information

(a) Description of segments

Business segments

Flight Centre Limited and its controlled entities operate predominantly in one business section - the sale of travel and travel related services and products.
